

NATIONAL NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM

Natural History Museum in Arusha is a branch of National Museum of Tanzania that was established in 1987 to house curate and research Tanzanian components of paleontological, pale anthropological and archaeological collections from different parts of the Tanzania that had been housed in the Corydon Museum (Now the National Museum of Kenya) in Nairobi.

COLLECTION

- Paleontological, pale anthropological, and archaeological collections from different sites from Tanzania including Olduvai Gorge
- Birds and animals of Tanzania

EXHIBITION

- Human evolution with evidences from different parts of Tanzania and other parts of the world
- Insects of economic importance
- Ecology of large mammals
- Taxidermist unit and exhibition with a focus on professional skinning and mounting of wild animals
- Live rescued wild animals
- A mini botanical garden with live endemic, threatened and useful indigenous plant species of Tanzania
- Birds and animals of Tanzania
- A fish pond
- History of the Germany colonial administration in the Northern Tanzania

EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

- Guiding tour in the exhibition hall
- Variety lessons on human evolution living organisms, environment and culture to support national curriculum
- Art Classes painting, tailoring, bead jewelry and traditional dances drumming
- Taxidermy classes
- Guidance to secondary school projects and research
- Workshops and seminars to education and tourism stakeholders

OTHER SERVICES

- Workshop and seminar rooms
- Cultural Café and Restaurant - the Via Via café
- Local art classes - painting, tailoring, bead jewelry, traditional dance and drumming
- Unique venue for ceremonies and receptions, meetings and exhibitions as well as a stunning backdrop for pictures
- Cultural Tourism Program in collaboration with the community
- Taxidermy classes

OPENING TIME

Every day from 9:30 AM - 06:00 PM

GUIDED TOUR FEES

	Tanzanian/ E. African	Foreigner
1-15	TZS 10,000	TZS 30,000
16-30	TZS 15,000	TZS 35,000

CONTACT

Director
National Natural History Museum
P.O Box 2160
Arusha, Tanzania
Tel +255272545540
Cel +255754532193
Email: naturalhistory@nmt.go.tz
Web www.museum.nmt.go.tz